Dear Fellow Georgians,

When I reflect on the 2012/13 school year at Royal St. George's College, the image that will forever come to my mind most is the photograph of Andy Whiteley, proudly dressed in the full regalia of a Medieval knight, his sword held high, about to cut the ribbon and officially open the new wing of See House.

This was the year of the transformation of the campus. After nearly 18 months of construction the new facility was incrementally turned over to the boys. The senior school's production of The Tempest in December marked the opening of the new theatre; the RSGCBHL season opened a little late, but on the freshly paved surface of the Gage Love Tarmac, the first ball was kicked on the turf field in December and the classrooms and art rooms were all in full use by the time we returned in January from the holiday. As I write this message, in early summer, the final touches are still being finished now that the campus is quiet for the summer.

When I spoke at the Ribbon Cutting ceremony I reflected on the last transformational building project undertaken by the College. This was the opening of Founders' Hall, the building we simply call the Senior School, in 1973. I wished that I could have thanked the visionary Board, staff, parents and students who built Founders' Hall because I believe there is a Royal St. George's College today because of their foresight. Founders' Hall, with the gymnasium, library, labs and classrooms transformed what was essentially a church basement school into an important and lasting institution.

At the opening of Founders' Hall on January 25, 1973 the Right Reverend L.S. Garnsworthy, Bishop of Toronto told the boys in attendance, that our College "began with first things first. It did not begin with all kinds of material resources or great buildings which could attract boys from every part of this city, community and country. It began with a few people who believed that if you are going to have a school, you've got to have some principles... upon which the school will be built."

As we celebrate the opening of our new facility, it's worth returning to the words of Bishop Garnsworthy from 40 years ago. The images in this edition of The Georgian bear witness to the principles Bishop Garnsworthy spoke of; the principles upon which this College was built that continue to endure: character, manners, excellence and duty.

Enjoy this copy of The Georgian. As I have said before, keep it in a safe place for I hope you return to it often. We had a great year.

My thanks to Mr. Hutton for his commitment and enthusiasm in creating The Georgian.

My thanks to all of the Staff at RSGC for challenging and inspiring the boys.

To the Class of 2013 my congratulations and thanks for your leadership of the College. Gentlemen, you have raised high the banner of our RSGC.

My 4 years at RSGC has been a great ride, throughout all the ups and downs , it will definitely be one I will always remember. I'd like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to attend such an amazing school, as well, a special thanks to the teachers who have helped me and stood by me along the way (Mr.Schroder, Mr.Kotecha, Mr.Spacie, Dr.Leatch, and Mr.Lambersky) and to my coaches who have coached me throughout the 4 years.

Finally, too all the boys (you know who you are) you have made this journey an unreal experience. I will definitely miss all the laughs, and all the good times we shared together. However, I will miss most the lunchtime conversations with all you boys in which I further enhanced your knowledge about the beautiful city of Buffalo, how having a girlfriend in gr.12 was the best decision I could of ever made.... BRRRPPP, and finally just being able to enjoy the time we had together. Without you boys I would not be the man I am today. I wish all of you the best of luck with your future endeavors and always remember "A 5 ON THE ROAD IS A 10 AT HOME."

It has been a long and amazing journey from grade three until graduation. I will miss many things about this school, the grounds, rugby, choir, but mostly the people and the environment. I leave now with no regrets, always thankful that this was the path put in front of me. Thank you to all my teachers who inspired me and helped me become a Georgian, I will remember each of you fondly. Thank you to my parents who sent me to this school for ten years and supported me the whole way. Special thanks to Ms. Kaye, who helped me so much this year with my prefect role and works endlessly to make RSGC a better place. It's a true honour to be a lifer and now a graduate. Goodluck to my fellow classmates in the graduating Class of 2013.

First off, I would like to thank all of the teachers who I've been inspired by at RSGC. Your dedication and enthusiasm for teaching has helped me so much. I truly feel prepared for the next steps in my academic career - whatever they may be - and my teachers have everything to do with this. Secondly, I would like to thank my family for being so supportive over the years. Lastly, to my fellow members of the class of 2013, it's been a pleasure to spend my years since grade six with you. I feel like we really came together as a group during the past couple of years especially. RSGC has definitely been memorable for me and I know that I echo the feelings of the entire grade when I say that RSGC will forever remain an indelible part of who I am.

Over my six years at RSGC I have learned so much about myself and who I really am. All my teachers have had a major impact on this and I will never forget what they taught me. I have also grown up and went from being a boy to a man with a group of 64 brothers. These brothers have all shaped who I am today and I will never forget the incredible memories we made together. I will always be a Georgian.

During my time at RSGC I have many fond memories whether they be through the athletics or through academics. From the memories I have learnt of the values that the school upholds. These same values have been instilled in me from the very first day and will always remain with me. These values were founded in the bond with my fellow classmates as we progressed through the years and grew up together. Not only my fellow students but also the teachers have helped to shape me into who I am today. I am proud to have gone to RSGC and I would hope to continue the tradition of being a Georgian.

It's sort of fitting that I left my grad quote until the last minute possible. You may think I was referring to my constant procrastination while a student at RSGC, but that's not quite it. It's fitting because very quickly after coming to RSGC in grade 9 I became immersed in the school culture. RSGC began to take over my life in all areas: socially, academically, culturally, and athletically. But this has not been a bad thing; rather, it has been a great thing.

As a person I have changed immensely over the last four years. I am a completely different person, and I believe I have vastly improved. If there is one thing I have learned during my tenure at the college, it's to always look for ways to improve yourself. RSGC has given me both the motivation and the means to do so. I find it hard to believe that I ever considered attending a school other than RSGC. I can only hope that my university choice will be as good as my high school choice.

I would like to thank all the teachers that have helped me along through the years. Special shout-outs to Mr. Enfield, Mr. Farrar, Dr. Newton, Ms. Girvan, Mr. Darvasi, and Mr. Shum for their above and beyond actions.

I came to RSGC a boy, adrift trying to find the future. I leave the same; except I leave with hopes, and with a possible direction for the future. I thank all of my family, friends and teachers, who accepted me, and let me look for that future. Most of all I thank my late godfather Michael Glicksohn. Coming back to RSGC for my graduating year was the best decision I could have made. After leaving for grade ten and eleven, I began to miss not only the school but the guys I spent every day with. I am glad to say that those relationships I made were rekindled and brought back. As an only child, I now know what having brothers feels like. The times we've spent together I will always remember and I'm proud to be graduating with all you boys. Through experience I know that two years apart is too much to spend away from all you boys. Keep in touch and never forget the impact we've made. We are Georgians today, but brothers forever.

I had a really great time with all the boys at RSGC. It has been a great run, and thank you to many of my friends, teachers, and family for the phenomenal time. While attending one of the most privileged schools in Toronto I realized that life is about the people you have by your side, and if you can make the best of it, you will always have a Georgian to rely on.

A few things I will miss the most about the RSGC BROTHERHOOD: Evensong, Track, Cross-country, the Terry Fox Run, how much the teachers care.

It has been great to study in an environment where the staff cares if you pass or fail and also how you are doing as a person.

Gunna miss all you boys, It has been a great time and I can't wait to laugh with you about the many many mistakes we are about to make in the next few years.

It's hard to believe that I've spent ten years at this school. I knew from the moment I set foot on the campus and stepped into that Grade 3 classroom that this was the school I wanted to be at. I'd first like to thank my parents for sending me here. Secondly, to my teachers, especially Mr. Enfield, Mr. Donnelly, Mr. Darvasi, and Mr. Reid for making me want to keep coming back to school every day. Lastly, to the fellow Class of 2013 grads. From the football games on the tarmac in the Junior School to the outdoor education trips to BC and Algonquin I couldn't think of a better group of guys to spend ten years with.

It's truly hard to believe that my time here at the College is almost over. Since Grade 5, I've made the early slog to Bathurst and Bloor each morning, through the easy ones and the hard ones. Little did I know of what I would learn along the way, or the person I would become.

I thank all my teachers for teaching me the skills that I will need after I graduate, especially Mr. Enfield, Mr. Schroder and Mr. D'Arcy. I'd also like to thank my friends for their wholehearted support, as well as the rest of my brothers in the Class of 2013 for many amazing memories. Most of all, I'd like to thank my Mom, Dad, and Mark for always being there for me and making this all possible. I also thank my parents for tearing me out of bed each morning, a feat that is nothing short of superhuman.

Although I am excited to advance to the next stage, I am deeply saddened to leave the College. I will never forget my tenure at RSGC, and everyone – from my colleagues to Dale – will eternally share a place in my Georgian heart.

My time at RSGC has flown by, over the past 9 years I've had some unreal moments that will never be forgotten. I'd like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to go to this outstanding school, my teachers (Donnelly, Darvasi, Schroder, and Enfield) to name a few, my coaches, and of course the beauties that have helped make me the person I am today. I would want to thank all the buddays for the good times we have shared, whether it was Tremblant (Roxanne) or grad trip with the boys, unreal weekends at endless bangers, or tossin' a rugger ball on the tarmac. A special thanks to all the gems that hit the 3P-workies.

Some of my best times at the college occurred on the ice/field/court. I will never forget winning the Varsity Hockey championship, the roadies to Montreal, and of course Buffalo. A final thanks to all the boys on the hockey team, for these past 2 unreal seasons (TLG for life). Finally my time at RSGC has come to an end. It has been a great 9 years here and I will never forget the moments created. No doubt about that boys, it is what it is.

I started my career at RSGC in grade 9; I can honestly say I have built up a brotherhood that will be a mission to find something like it again. I really hope its not the end of it though, I hope I can see the boys in the future and bring back old memories. Memories like that one named Roxanne....Can't say that I regret it.

The three years I have spent at RSGC have been the most enjoyable and defining three years of my life. I have made great friends, memories and had some of the best experiences of my life. I also faced some of the hardest challenges of my life but with the help and support of the teachers and students I persevered and achieved what I never thought I could. I am very excited to start the next chapter of my life and one of the reasons I am is because I know that RSGC has prepared me for it. I will never forget the lessons I learned at RSGC and will carry the motto "Manners Maketh Man" with me at all times.

Thank you to: Mr. Shum for the tough love, which seemed unnecessary at the time but is much appreciated now, Mr. Darvasi for allowing us such freedom on assignments and for teaching the most interesting English class I have ever taken, Mr. Healey for his willingness to help no matter how long it took, Mr. Enfield for preparing me for what I will face in university, Dr. Leatch for understanding and for providing me with some of the most helpful advice I ever received, Mr. D'Arcy for embracing my creativity, believing in me and pushing me beyond my comfort zone. And of course my parents, who gave me the privilege of attending RSGC and for their endless and whole hearted encouragement in everything I do.

My 8 years at RSGC have been amazing, but, it couldn't have been without the help of my parents, friends and RSGC Staff. I'd like to give big thanks to my parents for giving me the opportunity to attend St. Georges and my teachers for making it an overall positive and successful learning experience. The number of beauties at the school is outstanding, whether it be the teachers or students and I wouldn't be the Georgian I am today without them. There are many great memories that will stay with me forever, whether it was partying or playing catch on the tarmac. These memories wouldn't have happened without the help of fellow Georgians. Thanks to all the gems on the rugby, soccer, hockey teams and the Third Period Swoll Patrol beauties. Now that my RSGC career comes to an end it opens a new chapter for me, but I will never forget my times at the college.

"Manners Maketh Men". After four years at this college, having arrived as a shy 14 year old boy and leaving soon as 18 year old man, I truly believe that the school lives up to its motto. The teachers, the environment, as well as my classmates, have all helped to mould me into someone that I can be proud of. This school has taught me so much, in and outside of the classroom – teaching me how to be a proper gentleman and helping me to find and follow my passions. All these lessons have and will continue to help me prepare myself for the hard, fun and unknown future ahead. While it may be time for me to leave, I shall never take leave of all the great friendships and memories. Thank you Royal St. George's for a great four years.

Is it really over? Wow. Without a doubt the greatest 4 years of my life, so far. I will never forget my time at Royal St. George's College, as it is truly the greatest school in the world. The never-ending support and love shared amongst everyone in the school really does make the school one big family. Thank you to all the teachers, staff, and my fellow graduates for the millions of experiences we have shared and created together in the past four years. This school will always hold a special place in my heart.

These past four years at Royal St. Georges have been the best in my life so far and have also been the fastest. Over the years I have had both ups and downs, but I am proud to say I was able to finish my high school career on an up and I owe a chunk of that success to the teachers at this school for their hard work and dedication. I would like to thank all the teachers and faculty at this school for the work they put in day in and day out. Hopefully I can find teachers and faculty members that are as great and dedicated as everyone at this school when I go off to Laurier this coming September and be able to succeed in the long run. If there is one thing that I can honestly take away from my experience at Rsgc, it is that hard work pays off and that nothing ever comes for free. It has truly been an honor and privilege to attend Royal St. Georges College with the many students and faculty that make it the way it is – a second home. As Alan Alda said, "You can't get there by bus, only by hard work and risk and by not quite knowing what you're doing. What you'll discover will be wonderful. What you'll discover will be yourself."

Looking back on my years at RSGC I realize how fortunate I am to have spent the last four years of my life in such an amazing place. I would like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity and Mr. Beatty for telling me that he could see me as a Georgian even before I set foot on campus in grade nine. I would also like to thank Mr. Darvasi, Ms. Uhre, Ms. Wager, Ms. Fitz, Ms. Somerville, Ms. Ghoreshy, and Mr. Van Herk for helping me along the way.

I've made great friends and great memories at RSGC, all of which I will have forever.

The past six years at RSGC have been an incredible journey for me. I have many people to thank, but as my Headmasters, Mr. Hannaford and Mr. Beatty, have taught me thank you's are best delivered in person. There are too many words and memories to describe and capture the unbelievable experiences and times that I've been so lucky to have at RSGC. The St. George's community has such a special culture and people are friendly, social and just really good people to be around. I'm really going to miss it. I'd like to thank all of my teachers for their overwhelming support over the years. Massive thanks to the teachers that stayed with me after school while I struggled with concepts, you know who you are and I can't thank you enough for that. Most of all, I'm going to miss all the boys and the comradery we had. From BC to our graduation, we were a band of brothers, a year filled with unforgettable memories while we studied together, laughed together, partied together and finally graduated together. It's been a blast and we went out with a bang. Good luck to everyone and hope to see you all soon.

I AM GEORGIAN! Thank you RSGC!

Valedictory Address

Good evening parents, staff, and fellow Georgians. I am happy to be talking to you all on our final day as high school students. It truly is an honor to be able to speak today because the last four years I have had here I can say have been the best of my life. Being able to share final thoughts as we walk across this stage today is an opportunity that I wish we could all have because looking back on all of the amazing memories we have shared, the challenges we have faced, and our successes and failures, it is evident that the growth we have undergone. If everyone could get up here and give their gratitude I'm sure the first people that would come to mind are their parents. I would therefore like to take this opportunity to speak on behalf of our entire grade when I say that I would like to thank everyone's parents, guardians, relatives, and loved ones for the outstanding job they have done and for their ongoing support.

Towards the end of the year, one memory kept replaying in my head. It occurred to me that I could still remember my first day of high school. I showed up early to school to board a bus up to camp. I was frightened about high school, wondering whether I would make friends, how it would feel to be among the youngest people in the school, and how I would get through the next four years in this completely foreign environment. I remember my parents sending me off and leaving me in a crowd of people I did not know. I quickly came to realize that all of my concerns were unfounded because since this first day the unique atmosphere that this school offers has been tangible and inviting. High school no longer felt like this big scary unknown space. The school is not simply unique because of its location, size, or any of the physical assets it possesses. RSGC is a special place because of its dedicated staff, and most importantly it's students.

Truly the climate of RSGC is top down and the teachers have been integral to our academic and personal growth. I cannot picture a place without teachers so strongly committed to their students and the values they have instilled in all of us we will carry forever. Teaching is about much more than knowledge and every staff member here embodies that expression. Through day-to-day life, service trips, and in classes, I have learned as much about challenge, hard work, and other important life lessons as I have about the course material. When looking to the archetypal role model what ties them together is the ability to inspire through leading by example and being able to gain admiration through their actions not by their words. In this way faculty here are more than teachers; they are role models.

As I said before my personal successes have been a consequence of the environment in which I have been privileged enough to learn day in and day out for the last four years. The most influential part of this atmosphere is all of the students I have been able to learn alongside. I have struggled to come up with a suitable way to describe the importance of friendship and unity and how I feel about going to school with you all. To say that we have grown up together is an understatement because you cannot summarize that process in a sentence or a paragraph or a speech. I have partied with you, worked with you, and shared in triumph and defeat with you. I have had four of my birthdays with you, and most importantly grown into who I am today because of you. I came into high school with one brother and I feel proud to say that I am leaving with 64.

Over the past month I have heard about all of the "lasts" we are experiencing; the last evensong, last assembly, final class, and last high school exam. These experiences are finite but they are not endings. While high school is over the experiences and memories I have will stay with me forever and the bond I have with all Georgians: current, past and upcoming will always stay strong.

New beginnings are scary and university for some of us may be daunting, but whenever I feel isolated and afraid to leave, I can think back to the first day that I had at RSGC. I can remember getting on that bus with a bunch of strangers and being afraid but after spending four years with everyone here I can look forward to the amazing relationships I will continue to develop no matter what lies ahead. The realization came to me over the past month when I was hearing so much about our lasts that all firsts eventually become lasts. In this case I can remember the first time I sat in this chapel as a grade nine student when we received our welcome speech, and now, the last time I will sit in this chapel with you all; with my fellow friends and students, our loved ones and important figures, and our teachers.

We really have grown up here together. We have grown up in this very room with these people. We have grown up sitting in these pews singing from these hymnbooks, hearing speeches from this lectern. Thanks to you all I have great confidence moving forward because I know that all unfamiliar places given enough time may become a second home and any stranger can become part of my family. Whatever comes next in life, I will always remember that we are a family, we are brothers, we may not always get along but we will always succeed. We are strong together, unified by friendship and devotion. We are Knights. Thank you.

Projet pour LE PETIT PRINCE

Quand le Petit Prince est arrivé à cette planète, il y avait, devant lui, un homme qui était si occupé qu'il n'a même pas levé la tête pour dire « Bonjour ». Le Petit Prince a observé qu'il fait marcher des appareils de technologie différents qu'il n'a jamais vu auparavant. Le Petit Prince était très curieux.

« Qu'est-ce que c'est ? » a demandé le Petit Prince avec une voix excitée.

« Zut, alors ! » a dit l'homme qui continuait à ignorer le Petit Prince.

Pensant qu'il avait fait du tort, le Petit Prince a demandé « Pardonnez-moi, qu'est-ce que j'ai fait ? » avec une voix inquiète.

« Non, non, ce n'est pas toi, c'est ma connexion d'internet. Elle ne fonctionne pas maintenant. »

« Oh, qu'est-ce que c'est l'antinyet ? »

« Ce n'est pas l'antinyet, c'est l'in-ter-net. » a répondu l'homme avec du sarcasme pendant qu'il essayait de démêler des milles de fils électroniques sous la table.

Le Petit Prince a remarqué que l'homme avait l'air de ne pas avoir dormi pour longtemps. Les poches sous les yeux de l'homme le donnaient l'apparence d'un vieillard dans les années soixante-dix. Mais, en réalité, il était dans sa quarantaine.

« C'est un appareil qui me permet de voir des nouvelles, des films, des sports de communiquer avec tous mes amis. Je suis en contact avec tout le monde dans tous les mondes en utilisant l'internet. C'est pourquoi tout le monde m'appelle Monsieur Tout-Par-Tout » a prononcé l'homme avec fierté.

« Mais, je ne comprends pas. Pourquoi restez-vous ici tout seul ? Pourquoi est-ce que vous n'allez pas voir des sports, visiter vos amis, voyager à toutes les planètes en personne ? » a demandé le Petit Prince avec une voix perplexe.

« Parce que je peux tout faire ici dans le confort de ma propre planète. C'est très convenable de le faire comme ça. »

« Mais si vous restez ici, vous n'aurez pas de vraies expériences dans la vie...vous n'aurez pas de vie authentique. »

« Quel âge as-tu ? » a demandé l'homme sévèrement.

« J'ai dix ans » a répondu le Petit Prince avec fierté.

« Tu ne sais rien de la vie. Tu n'as que dix ans. Pourquoi est-ce que je t'écoute ? »

À ce point, l'homme était très fâché contre le Petit Prince. L'homme continuait à démêler les fils électroniques sous la table. « Ah, finalement, l'Internet marche encore. Ma vie peut enfin recommencer. »

« De ce que j'ai vu, la seule vraie chose dans votre vie est votre conversation avec moi. » a répondu le Petit Prince.

« Arrête de me déranger maintenant ! Tu es juste un petit garçon. Tu ne sais rien de la vie. » L'homme a répondu d'un ton brusque.

« On vous appelle Monsieur Tout-Par-Tout, mais on devait vous appeler Monsieur Nul-Par-Tout ! Vous devriez quitter cette planète et vraiment vivre ! C'est ça que vous m'avez enseigné. Je vais voyager, quitter ma planète et avoir les expériences ! Pendant que vous restez ici dans l'abri de votre planète, je vais vivre authentiquement et être en contact directement avec des êtres humains, face à face. Je vais vraiment vivre. Vous croyez que vous êtes en contact avec tout le monde, tout le temps. Mais, en réalité, vous n'êtes pas en contact avec personne ! Vous êtes seul. Et ça c'est triste. »

Le Petit Prince et la Huitième Planète

Par: Owen Burry

La prochaine planète que le Petit Prince a visitée était la planète de l'Homme en Colère. La planète était un peu plus grande que la dernière planète et l'a rendu mal à l'aise. L'homme qui habitait sur la planète était très fâché tout le temps. Puis, le Petit Prince lui a demandé « Pourquoi es-tu tellement fâché ? ». Il faisait un demi-tour et il a dit « Parce que... tu es tellement jeune pour comprendre. » Le Petit Prince a pensé... puis il disait « Mais pourquoi? Je comprends beaucoup de choses. » L'homme en colère a dit « Tu es un enfant. Tu es petit. Tu ne comprends pas mes ennuis, c'est très difficile d'être adulte! » Le Petit Prince pense que ça c'est une mauvaise raison pour être fâché tout le temps. S'il vit avec un nuage de ténèbres, c'est impossible d'être heureux. « C'est possible que si tu penses plus positivement, tu seras plus heureux », il disait, « Est-ce que tu as des amis? » « ...Non, pourquoi me demandes-tu ça ? » Puis, le Petit Prince réalise que personne ne veut pas être ami avec une personne qui est tellement fâché tout le temps. Il n'a pas d'amis parce qu'il est fâché tout le temps, et il est fâché tout le temps parce qu'il n'a pas d'amis pour le rendre heureux. Le Petit Prince est parti de la planète en disant « Les grandes personnes sont décidément très, très bizarres! »

Vikram's Letter

My Brother Santosh, 05/01/12

It has been too long since we last spoke, how is Delhi treating you and your family. I wish to thank you for naming your 5th son after me. I am having some troubles with Geetu. As you know she has been arranged to marry Raju. He is very, very smart with the computers. He makes much money. I do not know how but she has fallen in love with another boy, A Muslim named Mohammed, it makes my blood boil when I think of him! My heart is so filled with pain. I have not felt this way since Indira Gandhi was killed.

This man is a very bad influence on her. I think she is sneaking out with him while I sleep! I was purchasing some charras on my way home and I asked the man if he knew anything about Mohammad. Ganesh has blessed me with his fortune; this vendor's brother is the waterman for the apartment where Mohammed lives. He is a Goonda! It is terrible indeed; is it not bad enough that he is not Hindu but a criminal as well?

I am afraid I will have to remind Geetu who has the authority. It has been too long since I last used my bamboo cane. A few lashes might help... or would it? All of the news today is either about the Afghans or women. She speaks with her mother about girls being attacked by their husbands. Why is that so wrong? It is their right as husband to do as they wish. Raju is a good man; he would not hurt my daughter. It is that Mohammed that will ruin her. Perhaps it is the rambling mind of a tired old man. I will speak with Kumar about this.

The very best to you and Padma and the children,
Vikram

Santosh, 05/03/12

She is gone! She has run off with the Goonda to his old village! Raju knows of the village and has gone to find her. Her best friend Sangeeta has gone with him, the poor girl is in love with Raju. I worry for the girls, the monsoons are almost upon us and the wedding is almost here.

Enjoy the charras,

Vikram

Santosh, 05/17/12

It has been 2 weeks since the four of them disappeared. I am very worried, what if Geetu is hurt? What if she is dead? Worst of all, what if she has married the Muslim? I hope Raju scared him off...

Send pictures of the children,

Vikram

It is a glorious Day Santosh, 05/24/12

They have returned! I fear it was rather embarrassing for everyone however. We found them in Flora Fountain of all places. The women ran to cover the girls. My family will be the laughing stock of Colaba. I was in a rage and when I saw the Goonda I charged at him. But I realized something then. I looked into Mohammed's eyes and saw that he truly loved Geetu. My charge turned into a hug. A gora once called it a "bear hug". Why would they hug bears? Do not be upset but in my moment of joy I may have granted him my permission to marry Geetu.

I told him to make me a beautiful dagger, and give it to me in return. Should he ever hurt my daughter I will turn his gift against him. Raju and Sangeeta are also to be wed. A very strange month it has been my brother.

We will visit you soon,

Vikram
